

Prayerline of Elim International Missions for the week Sunday 25th April to Saturday 1st May 2010 inclusive.

GUYANA

The Elim Pentecostal Church of Guyana is holding 60th anniversary celebrations on Sunday 25th April. Praise God for all that Elim in Guyana has achieved over these years. Pray that God will richly bless the anniversary celebrations and that Elim in Guyana will see many coming to Christ through their ministry in the days ahead.

LIFELINK

A Lifelink Meeting takes place in Derby on Wednesday 28th April. Pray for Mandy and the team in all the discussions that take place and for safe travelling.

MOZAMBIQUE

A team from Elim Ingatstone led by Robin Fenner arrives in Mozambique on 1st May until the 6th. The team will be with Gregory and Sharon Kane and will be running a three-day conference for church leaders. Pray for safety in travelling and all they do. Pray the conference will be a great blessing to those attending.

FLIGHT DISRUPTIONS

Thank you for your prayers for the Lifelink Team. They have now arrived back safely having had a very long journey by minibus and ferry from Macedonia.

Jackie Griffiths has been able to change her flight back to 1st May.

Our missionary in Sudan is now coming leaving for the UK on 25th April.

Ruth Pearson (Neath) has been delayed in Rwanda but thankfully she now has a flight out on Friday 23rd. Pray for others from Elim who are currently overseas that they won't be any delays on their return flights.

JAPAN

Praise God Jim and Kayo Davies have witnessed the baptism in the Holy Spirit among their congregation and one of their neighbours has just given her life to Christ. Things are happening for the glory of God in Japan. Pray for more!
