

Prayerline of Elim International Missions for the week Sunday 21st March to Saturday 27th March 2010 inclusive.

HONDURAS

John and Rachel McDonough have arrived safely in Tegucigalpa. Continue to pray that they will settle in well and not feel homesick. Pray for Pastor Carlos as he leads the two churches. Pray too for Project Joseph, that as the children are given food and told Bible stories, they will not only be changed physically but also spiritually.

MALAWI

Sonya Lester badly sprained her ankle a few weeks ago and it is still troubling her. Pray for complete healing with no lasting effects.

CONGO

Conso Mutunda (Barking) arrives in Congo on Sunday 21st March for three weeks, one week of which she will be spending with Debbie Howard. Pray for safe travelling and for Conso to have an excellent visit and be a blessing to Debbie and all those she meets.

UGANDA

Pastor Dominic de Souza (Letchworth) leaves for Uganda on 24th March where he will be ministering for a week. Pray for a safe journey and that the Holy Spirit will use him mightily.

TURKEY

Peter and Lucy* will have to look for somewhere new to live when they return in April as their Landlord has sold their apartment while they are away. They are seeking God to reveal His plan and purpose for them in Turkey in the coming days. Pray they will clearly hear His voice .

SPAIN

Please continue to pray for John & Valerie Knox following their car accident in December. Valerie continues to receive treatment to reduce the haematomas in her abdomen. After nine weeks of immobility of his left arm, John is now receiving intensive physiotherapy to restore mobility to his shoulder, elbow, wrist and hand. Please pray for complete recovery. Continue also to pray for their daughter in law Jay.

Praise God for the growth in the Girona church plant in Palafrugell. The average Sunday attendance has now doubled since the church was planted to over 50 each week. Please pray for the continued blessing on all that the Girona church is involved with at this time, including the financial provision for the building work.

NORTHERN IRELAND ACADEMY

The final part of this ten-week missions module takes place on Monday 22nd March. As this comes to a conclusion, pray that those who have attended will have developed a deeper awareness of global mission that will have a long-lasting effect. Pray for Paul Hudson as he prepares for and leads this final session.
