

Prayerline of Elim International Missions for the week Sunday 18th April to Saturday 24th April 2010 inclusive.

SUDAN

Our missionary arrives in the UK on 21st April for a period while elections take place in Sudan. During her time here she will visit churches and attend our Elim Conference. Pray for safe travelling. Continue to pray for a peaceful, good election result.

MALAWI

Jackie Griffiths departs Malawi on 21st April. Pray all the final arrangements for returning go well and she will have a safe trip. Pray that she will soon settle back to life in the UK. Jackie has done an excellent job in Malawi. Pray all the good foundations she has laid will continue and grow.

ISRAEL

A team from Elim Derby leave for Israel on 24th April for a week. During their time there they will spend some time with CMJ and Bridges for Peace. Pray for a really good visit that will inspire the team to future involvement with missions.

IRAN

Maryam and Marzieh spent 259 days in prison for their Christian faith. Both of them remain unwell and weak, but despite their frailty they are determined to be faithful to the Lord. Pray they will both completely recover and be strong physically, mentally and spiritually. A Court Hearing took place on 13th April which was adjourned for a few days. Pray they will be set free with no further charges.

NEPAL

28th May is the deadline for completion of the new Constitution in Nepal. Pray for wisdom and harmony and for a stable government to be put in place. Pray that the gospel will be able to be preached freely.
