

Prayerline of Elim International Missions for the week Sunday 19th September to Saturday 25th September 2010 inclusive.

CONGO

Pray for Debbie Howard who has just travelled from Lubumbashi to Kipushya where she will be until 7th October. Pray for safety in all she does and that God inspire and use her while she is in Kipushya.

UGANDA

Heather Dyce is currently leading a team from City Church Hatfield to Uganda, returning to the UK 26th September. Pray for Heather, Petrina, Eموke and Winifred as they

SWAZILAND

Wendy Brown has arrived safely in Swaziland, thank you for your prayers. Continue to pray that she will soon settle in and feel completely at home.

MOZAMBIQUE

The Elim Mozambique annual conference takes place 24th-26th September. Pray all the planning and preparation goes well and this will be a wonderful occasion. During the conference Gregory Kane and Daniel will be saying their formal goodbye to Elim Mozambique. It's always hard saying goodbye, pray for both of them. Pray for Pastor Cafuliza as he heads up Elim Mozambique. Pray that he will envision the people and they will be confident Elim in Mozambique is in safe hands.

PAKISTAN

Continue to pray for all those affected by the recent flooding. We have a close relationship with a church and Bible School in Pakistan and all funds we receive will be sent through this reliable source. If you would like to contribute, send cheques payable to Elim International Missions marked 'ERA Pakistan' or you can give online through www.elimmissions.co.uk/pakistanappeal
Our appeal will close at the end of October 2010.

*Thank you very much for your prayer support
