

Prayerline of Elim International Missions for the week Sunday 13th March to Saturday 19th March 2011 inclusive.

JAPAN

A tsunami has caused major damage in north-east Japan after a massive 8.9 magnitude earthquake struck off the coast. Cars, ships and even buildings were swept away by a vast wall of water. Pray that the tsunami and any aftershock will not affect the region further.

HONDURAS

John and Rachel McDonough fly back to the UK on 15th March for a time of rest and refreshment, plus catching up with family, friends and their sending church, Carlisle. Pray for safe travelling.

INDIA

Janice Clarke (Crewe) returns to the UK on 16th March. Pray her last few days in India will be blessed and she will have a safe journey home.

SOUTH AFRICA

Ray Cotter, Central and Southern Africa Missions Director, travels to South Africa on 17th March until the 22nd. While there he will be opening an Emmanuel Assemblies church built in memory of the late Betty Gull. Pray this will be an excellent visit. Pray too for retired Elim Missionary Ron Gull that he will know God's strength and enabling in all he does.

SPECIAL NEEDS MEETING

The second meeting takes place at Birmingham South CLC on Saturday 19th March. Pray for safe travelling for those attending and that God will guide in the discussions that take place.

KENYA

Pastor Alun Taylor will be in Kenya from 10th to 18th March where he will be joining David and Bobbie Tinnion in providing training. Pray for safe travelling and for God to guide Alun in all he does.

LIBYA

As the conflict continues, pray that world leaders will be able to negotiate to bring this to a peaceful and satisfactory conclusion.

NEPAL

The sponsored Everest Trek comes to an end on Friday 18th March. They are doing well so far although the next few days will be challenging as they climb higher. Pray the team will continue to acclimatise well and not suffer from altitude sickness and that they will all be able to reach Base Camp.
