ZIMBABWE

A work team of 14 men led by Ray Cotter are currently assisting Elim Zimbabwe, returning to the UK on 3rd April. Pray they will be able to get everything done that they have planned to do and for safety in all things.

PHILIPPINES

Willard and Marjorie have been in the UK for since February for a break and are currently visiting churches sharing about their ministry. Pray they will be encouraged whilst in the UK. Pray too for the growing Montalban church that it will continue to thrive in their absence.

CAMBODIA

John and Ann Turner are currently back in Northern Ireland whilst John fulfils his teaching commitments. Pray they will enjoy their time back home and be able to spend some time relaxing. Pray also for the Elim work in Phnom Penh continuing while they are away.

Uganda

Paul Thomas and team of seven are going to visit Ty Cariad children's work in Uganda. Pray that there will be no problems with their flights and that the building project will go smoothly. Pray also for those who are going to Uganda for the first time that they will have a great experience, pray that God will be glorified through all that the team does.

Persecution in Nigeria

Earlier this month the village of Jos experienced a massacre attack on Christians by the Fulani Muslims. Most were attacked in their beds and many homes have been destroyed. Pray for those who have lost family and friends that they would find hope in Christ. Pray also for the situation in Nigeria and that protection will be provided. Pray for peace to be evident in Nigeria.

HAITI

Haiti is still trying to recover from the massive earthquake at the beginning of 2010. Pray that the money being sent out would be used wisely and provide health care, shelter and food where it is most needed in this desperate situation.

Easter

We trust that you have a wonderful Easter. Pray that special meetings being held here and overseas will impact people with the meaning of the Gospel and lives will be transformed.
