

Prayerline of Elim International Missions for the period Sunday 20th December to Saturday 9th January 2010 inclusive.

SPAIN

Nina Cobham, 8 year old daughter of Tim and Helen, has been experiencing pain in her ears with some hearing loss. She has been referred to specialists. Pray for her complete healing.

SWAZILAND

Jane Bradshaw flies back to the UK on Tuesday 22nd December to spend Christmas with family and friends. Pray for a safe journey and for a restful and refreshing time.

MACEDONIA

Tony and Norma Coles travel back to the UK on 18th December for Christmas - pray for an excellent time. Pray that their house group will continue to thrive while they are away. Pray too for the English classes Norma and Tony are running - pray that more people will attend. The church is growing and would like to be able to relocate to the local cinema on Sundays. Pray the negotiations will go well.

MALAWI

Sonya Lester returns to Malawi on Tuesday 5th January 2010. Pray that God will guide her and give wisdom as she begins a further two years service for Him in that nation.

PHILIPPINES

Mark and Cora King arrive in the UK on Monday 21st December until 10th January. Their son Dan will be with them but he will not return to the Philippines in January but remain in the UK to work before starting University in the autumn. Pray for them all in this new situation.

CONGO

Along with other Sunday School teachers, Debbie Howard is holding a three-day Holiday Club for adolescents from 22nd-24th December. Pray the organising will go well and the young people will be impacted through this. Debbie is also organising a drama presentation for Christmas morning which in Congo will be expected to last at least two hours! Pray this will go really well and people will respond to the real message of Christmas.

HAPPY CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR!

Pray that all the special Christmas events our missionaries are holding around the world over this festive season will impact lives and people will realise what Christmas is really all about - the coming of Christ.

*Thank you very much for your prayers over this past year - prayer really does make a difference!
May we wish you a very happy Christmas and a wonderful New Year. God bless you.*

Prayerline will be updated again on Friday 8th January 2010.
