

Prayerline of Elim International Missions for the week Sunday 10th April to Saturday 16th April 2011 inclusive.

SIERRA LEONE

On Friday 15th April Kiptieu Agyei leaves for Sierra Leone to move forward the Heaven Homes project providing care for orphaned and vulnerable children. Pray God will give her wisdom in all the discussions and planning that takes place.

TANZANIA

Shaun and Karen Graham's baby is due this week. Pray that all will be well and Karen will have a safe delivery.

HAITI

Michel Martelly, a musician, has won Haiti's presidential election in a landslide victory. Pray that political stability will now take place bringing change to the poor, earthquake-battered nation. And as the rainy season starts, pray the incidence of cholera will not rise.

IVORY COAST

Many civilians have lost their lives as fighting continues over who is the rightful President. Pray that this conflict will be peacefully resolved.

MIDDLE EAST

Andrew and Kathryn would appreciate your prayers as their plans to move location is gaining momentum. Pray that their application to a UK Trust for funding will be viewed with favour. Pray they will have many opportunities to introduce friends to the limitless compassion and love of Jesus.

SPAIN

Dave Hodgson's grandmother who is 87 has recently had some falls and is currently in hospital for assessment. She is not a Christian so pray that her eyes and heart will be opened to the wonderful grace of Jesus Christ. Pray for Dave, his grandmother and the family at this concerning time.

Praise God John Knox is home now following surgery and is recuperating well. Despite being on a special diet, he is tolerating food well. Continue to pray for a complete recovery. Pray too for Valerie Knox who is changing chemotherapy treatment from tablets to intravenous. Pray this will lessen the side effects she is experiencing in her hands and feet.

Praise God 450 people gathered last weekend at the Girona Elim Church for a united prayer event at which there was a great sense of unity and purpose.

LIBYA

Please continue to pray for a peaceful end to the conflict in Libya.

JAPAN

Of the hundreds and thousands of survivors who lost everything in the earthquake and subsequent tsunami on 11th March, it is likely that at least half are older people. Pray that all survivors will be helped including suitable and accessible assistance for older people. If you would like to contribute to our appeal to help survivors of the disaster, you can do so via our website www.elimmissions.co.uk/japanappeal or by cheque payable to Elim International Missions to the West Malvern address below. Thank you.
