

Prayerline of Elim International Missions for the week Sunday 30th January to Saturday 5th February 2011 inclusive.

HAITI

Jackie Griffiths and Becky Haldane leave for Haiti on 1st February. Pray for safe travelling through Miami and on to Haiti. Pray that they will soon settle and build good relationship with those they will be working with. Pray for Julia and the children at the Mango Tree orphanage that through our Elim family represented by Jackie and Becky we will be able to make an enormous difference in the children's lives physically, emotionally and spiritually.

IRAN

Please continue to pray for the Christians still being held in prison in Tehran. Pray they will be given supernatural endurance to remain strong during the ordeal they are facing. Pray for the families of those arrested, that they will have the peace of God that passes all understanding. Pray for all Christians in Iran that they will be safe and protected from harm. Pray that the Church in Iran will strengthen and grow in the days ahead despite the opposition it is facing.

BRAZIL

Martin, Rebeca and their children Daniel and Elizabeth return to Brazil on 1st February after attending Martin's brother's wedding. Pray for the family as they return that God will use them mightily as they minister with the people in Maues, Amazon.

ZIMBABWE

Pray for a complete recovery to full health and strength for Geoff Saunders who has recently had pneumonia. The family moved house in Harare in December. Pray for a new borehole to be installed quickly to supplement the very limited supply of tap water.

EGYPT

Two days of demonstrations in Cairo have left at least four people dead and many injured. Pray that the anger being expressed by the people will be addressed and as a result peace will be restored.
