

Prayerline of Elim International Missions for the week Sunday 11th October to Saturday 17th October 2009 inclusive.

PHILIPPINES

Please continue to pray as the big clear up takes place to remove all the mud left behind following the floods. Our partners in Manila and surrounding area continue to help people with food, clothing and much needed supplies. Thank you to everyone who has already given following our appeal for funds. If you would like to give please send cheques payable to Elim International Missions to the address below. Thank you.

INDIA

Amongst other areas, India has also been hit hard by heavy flooding. One of our partners in India has reported that many elderly and disabled are stranded on the top of buildings while they wait for the waters to subside. Please pray for protection and safety.

CAMBODIA

Jackie Vanderput (Barnsley) leaves for Phnom Penh on Tuesday 13th October where she will be working with the Turners for two weeks. Pray for safety in travelling and for an excellent visit.

NEPAL

A Manna Mission team led by Mike Reid and Andy Lenton from Elim churches in the North of England will be in Nepal on mission from 15th-27th October. Pray that God will really use this team as they go into areas where there are no churches and no Christian witness. Pray too for our workers in Nepal for protection and wisdom in all they do.

INDIA

Elim Missionaries Johnny and Heather are currently in Northern Ireland. Johnny will be officially ordained on Saturday 17th October. Pray this will be a joyous occasion for Johnny and Heather and their family and friends. Pray for God to bless them both in their ministry in the days ahead.

SOUTH AFRICA

Thank you for your prayers for Daniel Pate. His hospital appointment went well and he doesn't need further surgery, certainly for the time being.

ZAMBIA

Sybil McKillop arrives in the UK this week to be with her daughter Susan for the birth of her first child. Pray that everything will go wonderfully well.

IRAN

On 7th October Maryam and Marzieh were unexpectedly taken before the Court to face three charges; anti-State activities, propagation of the Christian faith and apostasy. Praise God there was a new judge presiding and he was sympathetic. He acquitted them both from the charge of anti-State activities, which rarely happens. As a result their case has now been transferred from the revolutionary Court to the general Court to consider the other two charges. Your prayers are making a real difference, thank you. Please continue to pray for them both, for their health to improve and that they will be released.

Thank you very much for your prayer support
